
The Long Boom : What China's Rebalancing Means for Australia's Future

9 September 2016 – Space@Collins

The Hon John Brumby, National President, ACBC

The Hon John Brumby was the former Premier of Victoria (2007 – 2010) and has immense experience in public life serving for more than 10 years as Treasurer, 6 years as Leader of the Victorian Opposition, and 7 years as Federal Member for Bendigo.

As Premier and Treasurer, Mr Brumby forged closer links with China and Hong Kong, releasing Victoria's first ever China Strategy, visiting China on numerous occasions opening new trade and investment offices in Nanjing and Shanghai and officially welcoming then Vice President Xi Jinping to Melbourne in 2010. Among his many appointments, he is an Independent Director of Huawei Technologies (Australia) and President of the Australia China Business Council. He is also Chairman of The Fred Hollows Foundation.

Prof Edward Buckingham, Monash Business School

Prof Buckingham graduated with a BSc in Materials Science and a BA (Hons) in Indonesian Literature from Monash University.

After graduating from Monash, Edward continued with post graduate China studies at the Johns Hopkins Nanjing Center. He also holds an MBA from INSEAD. His PhD, from SOAS, the University of London, focused on organisational boundaries and business strategy in Indonesia.

Prior to joining Monash Business School on July 10th 2015, Edward spent two years at Nottingham University's Business School in Ningbo, China. His professional background includes both corporate and academic roles. Edward has been Director of INSEAD's Executive MBA programs (France, Singapore the UAE and Beijing); Manager, Schlumberger Business Consulting Group (UK, France, Gabon, Pakistan and Russia); and Associate Consultant, Boston Consulting Group (China). After his MBA he was Directeur Général of Airsec SAS (now part of Clariant) a French company that pioneered desiccant packaging for the pharmaceutical industry.

Edward's areas of expertise are strategy, entrepreneurship, international business and change management. He has extensive experience in executive education, and has taught in French, Indonesian and Mandarin as well as English. His specialist areas in executive education include strategy and leadership. His industry interests include agribusiness, manufacturing, education and natural resources.

Prof Rodney Maddock, Australian Centre for Financial Studies

Professor Rodney Maddock is the Interim Executive Director of ACFS. He is also a Professor at Monash University and Vice-Chancellor's Fellow at Victoria University.

Rod is currently President of the Economic Society of Australia's Victorian Branch. In the decade to 2012 he was a senior executive at the Commonwealth Bank of Australia. Earlier roles included Chief Economist for the Business Council of Australia and Head of Economic Policy in the Victorian Cabinet Office. He was also a Professor and Head of the School of Business at La Trobe University.

He has a distinguished academic record with extensive academic publications and experience working in a number of countries. His main books include Rational Expectations, The Australian Economy in the Long Run, and Unlocking the Infrastructure. His ongoing research is in the areas of finance and Australian economic development.

Mr Marco Carlei, Managing Partner, ShineWing Australia

Marco is the Managing Director of ShineWing Australia and is a Board Member of both ShineWing Australia and ShineWing International.

A commitment to excellence in client service is front of mind as Marco leads ShineWing's strategy to become Australia's pre-eminent full service accounting and advisory firm. Marco is focused on cementing the Firm's client-first culture and understands that value for money means more to clients than just a number.

Client feedback and continuous improvement are at the centre of the Firm's strategy. Marco actively engages with the Firm's clients to understand their key business opportunities and challenges, share industry and high level market insights, and actively connect clients when there may be a mutually beneficial opportunity to work together.

Marco has also led the Firm's investment in industry, a move that has resulted in our partners being recognised as leaders in their field and positioned the Firm to attract exceptional industry talent across all levels of seniority.

Marco's experience includes advising clients on mergers, acquisitions and divestments and strategy consulting. He has over 30 years of industry experience in the gaming, franchising and retail sectors. Marco also holds a number of private company directorships in the mining and technology sectors.

Married, and a father to three sons, Marco has always called Melbourne home, though he loves to travel. He is passionate about the not-for-profit sector and is actively involved in charity work and philanthropy.
